

It's shameful that you want to take away the best thing going in a long time ----- satellite radio is a godsend to many people and it is truly a shame that you would take this away from people who want it and need it for the sake of some who want the take for themselves only -----